He was Class President his sophomore and junior years.

I, Betty Spielman being in a sound and rational state of mind and realizing the inevitable conclusion of my high school career do hereby and hereon state this as my last will and testament.

I will the following:

To Doris Campbell, my typing ability. Maybe she can get an A.

To Karen Allen, my ability to read my Constitution each day.

My seat in study hall to Jeanie. I hope she will stay in it as faithfully as I always have.

To Isla Faye, my sharp pencils to use for defense against Rex Russell.

To Bob Allen, my bookkeeping skill. Good luck, Bob.

To Mr. Engler, some cloves, cinnaman, nutmeg, and ginger to spice up his dull classes.

To Rex Allen, my book of knowledge to be able to answer questions as faithfully as I always did.

To Ruth Carlson, my good looks.

To Jean Pendland, my ability to stay awake during school.

To Howard Allen, my attendance record.

To Ruth Gerber, my cheerleading ability.

To Joyce Burns, my basketball suit.

To Ann Norton, my basketball position.

My typing accuracy to Eldon (especially in speed tests).

To Roger Allen, the opportunity to ride the bus to school on cold mornings when his car doesn't start.

I, Leon Osterhaus, being of sound and rational mind, realizing the inevitable conclusion of my high school career, do hereby and hereon state this as my last will and testament.

I will the following:

I will my ability to draw pictures of my Constitution teacher to Eldon.

I will my hair wave lotion to Robert because his last bottle is almost gone.

I will my extra muscle and weight to Rex Russell because he needs it.

I will my looks to Howard, if he can stand them as long as I did.

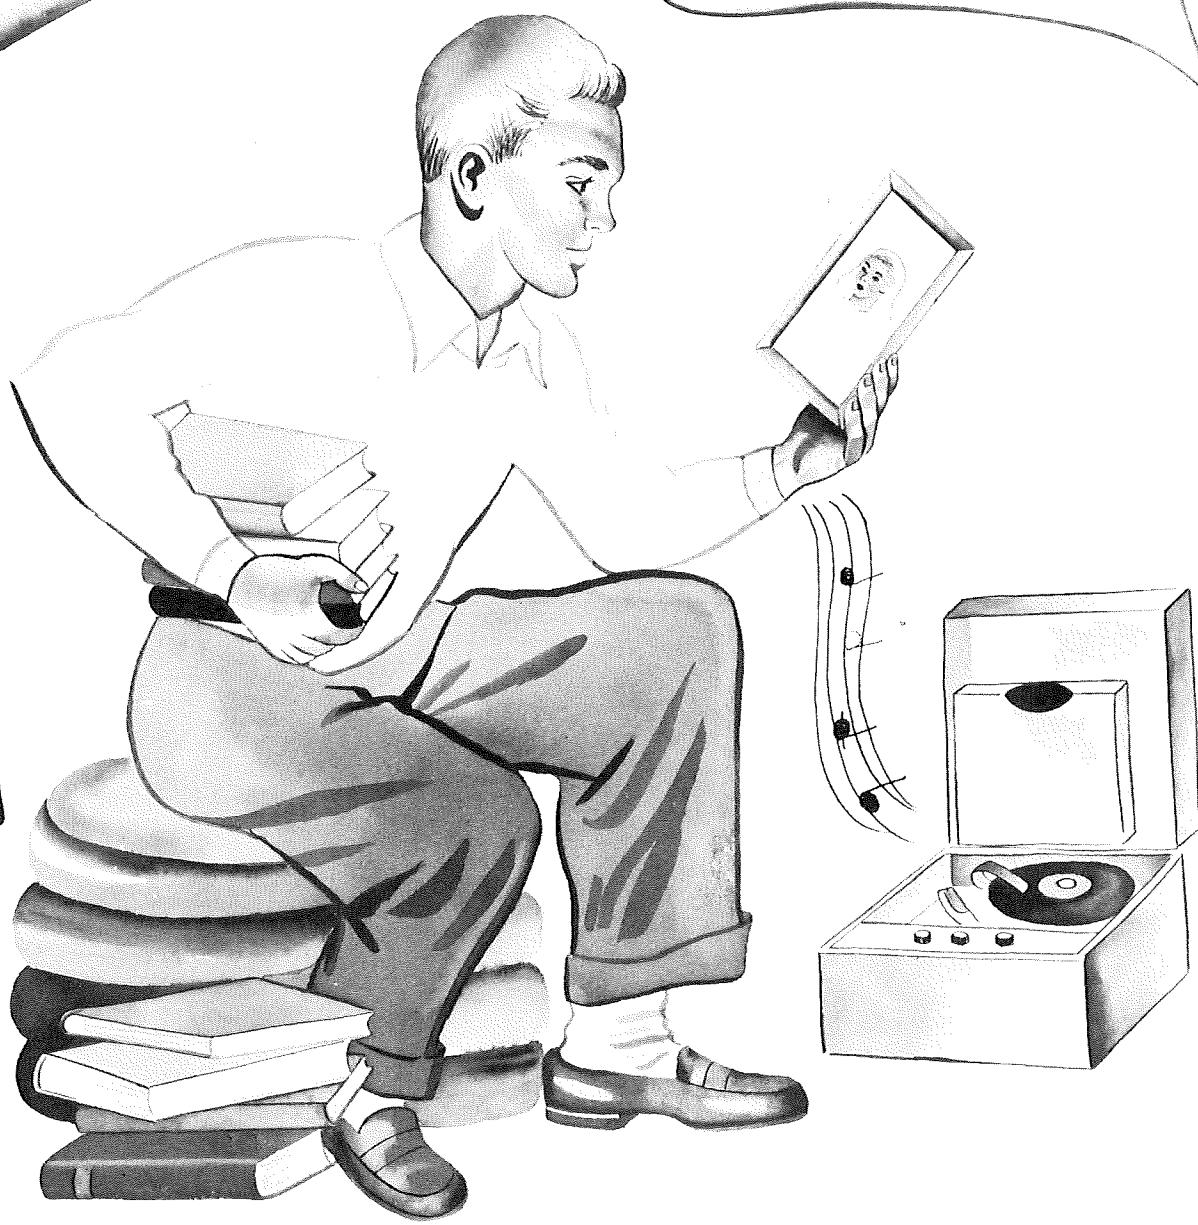

I will my speed in typing to Roger.

I will my desk in study hall to Rex Allen.

FRESHMAN INITIATION DAY

On September 16, 1955, Oneida Rural High School formally recognized the presence of the new Class of 1959. While this new group lacked the qualities present in the upperclassmen, they were accepted after proving themselves in a few trials of wit and courage.

The Class of '59 was treated to a delightful lunch of raw eggs, green oatmeal-ala-salt, and brine. They said it was delicious.

This lowly group walked downtown and extolled their humblness by cheering all the upperclassmen and booing themselves.

Following this ordeal, the students and faculty rode to Sycamore Springs for a picnic dinner and an afternoon of softball and roller skating.
